Manon FOLNY

Position

Associate
Avocat à la Cour, Member of the Luxembourg Bar, 2022

Education

2022	Cours complémentaires en droit luxembourgeois (Luxembourg)
2020	Master's degree in Law – Civil and Insurance Law, Université de Poitiers (France)
2019	Master's degree in Law – Civil Law, Université de Metz (France)
2018	Bachelor’s Degree in Law (Licence en droit), Université de Metz (France)

Languages

French, English

Associations

Areas of practices

- Employment, Pensions & Immigration

Manon advises and represents clients in Luxembourg in both advisory and litigation matters across various legal areas with a focus on employment law, commercial law, GDPR and immigration law.

She regularly handles both written and oral proceedings and assists clients in complex and cross-border matters. Prior to joining the firm, she gained experience in litigation firms, as well as in the insurance sector and within the French Ministry of the Interior, notably in the field of international claims, in particular in matters involving liability assessment and litigation strategy.