Ruben MENDES

Position

Senior Associate
Avocat à la Cour, Member of the Luxembourg Bar, 2016

Education

2023

Premier Certificate in FinTech, Harvard University

2016

Complementary Course in Luxembourg Law, Ministry of Justice

2015

Certificate in Intellectual Property, WIPO – Université de Genève, Geneva

2013

LL.M. in European Economic Law, University of Luxembourg – Centre Européen Universitaire of Nancy, Luxembourg

2012

2012	Postgraduate Degree in CJEU Case Law, European Institute of Lisbon, Portugal
	Master’s Degree in Legal Political Sciences, Autonomous University of Lisbon, Portugal

Languages

French, English, Portuguese, Italian and German

Associations

LetzBlock - Luxembourg Blockchain & DLT Association

Areas of practices

- Media, Data, Technologies & IP

Ruben Mendes is member of the Luxembourg Bar, since 2016. Prior to joining MOLITOR Avocats, Ruben worked as senior associate at boutique and major law firms in Luxembourg.

Ruben has solid expertise across a wide array of sectors including information technology, software, virtual and crypto-assets, data protection, copyright, music and media, and trademarks.

He assists clients from various industries in navigating complex legal challenges, providing both contentious and advisory legal services. His clients include software developers, technology-oriented and FinTech businesses, collective management organisations, artists working in multiple disciplines, and Support PSFs.

Ruben contributes to write articles to reputable journals and stays abreast of the most recent developments within his areas of expertise.