Sami BEN MAHMOUD

Position

Senior Associate

Education

2013 : Master’s degree L.L.M in European and International Financial Law and Tax Law, University of Luxembourg, Luxembourg

2012 : Master's degree in Fiscal Law, University of Paris I, Panthéon-Sorbonne, France

2011 : Bacherlor’s degree in law, University of Paris XII (UPEC), France

Languages

French, English

Associations

Areas of practices

- Litigation & Dispute Resolution

Sami is a Senior Associate in our Litigation and Dispute Resolution practice.

He focuses on complex and multi-jurisdictional disputes, representing clients before all Luxembourg courts, including the Justice of the Peace, the District Court, and the Court of Appeal. His practice covers a wide range of contentious matters, including commercial, corporate, and tax litigation, as well as insolvency, enforcement, and emergency proceedings. Sami is also actively involved in international arbitration, where he assists clients with cross-border disputes, procedural strategy, and coordination with foreign counsel.

Prior to joining MOLITOR Avocats à la Cour, he worked at leading Luxembourg law firms, where he developed strong expertise in litigation and dispute resolution, alongside experience in corporate and advisory matters.