Associations

Eléonore is one of the co-founders of the Young Collectors Club (YCC), an organisation created to encourage and inspire a new generation of art collectors while supporting the broader ecosystem of the art industry

She is also a member of the Association Luxembourgeoise des Juristes de Droit Bancaire (ALJB) and the Young Friends of Museums (YFM).

Areas of practices

- Banking & Finance
- Insolvency and restructuring desk
- Litigation & Dispute Resolution

Eléonore specializes in a broad range of litigation and advises in contract disputes, banking and finance law, and insolvency matters. Her extensive experience in financial litigation is complemented by an in-depth knowledge in art law and art history, making her an asset in cases that intersect these fields.

Before joining MOLITOR, Eléonore gained valuable experience by working in the anti-money laundering division and assisting the Art & Finance department of a leading consultancy firm. She also worked at another well-renowned law firm in Luxembourg where she has been involved in complex litigation and many high-profile litigation cases.
