

MOLITOR announces new appointments

Posted on Monday 1st of July 2013 in

MOLITOR Avocats à la Cour are delighted to announce three new appointments:

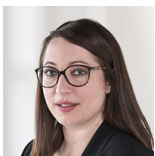

- Virginie Liebermann, Senior Associate, IP, IT & Media and Employment & Pensions
- Claire Denoual, Associate, IP, IT & Media
- Laurence Van Looy, Office Manager

Virginie LIEBERMANN (31) has been promoted to Senior Associate. Virginie is a graduate of the University of Strasbourg, France in Business Law, European Business Law and European Competition Law. She joined MOLITOR in 2008 and she specialises in IP, IT & Media and Employment Law.

Claire DENOUAL (29) has been promoted to Associate in the firm's IP, IT & Media practice. Claire holds a Master in Intellectual Property from the Centre d'Etude Internationales de la Propriété Intellectuelle (CEIPI), Strasbourg, France and a Master in Business Law from the University Robert Schuman, Strasbourg, France. She joined MOLITOR in 2012 and specialises in IP law

Laurence VAN LOOY (32) has joined MOLITOR Avocats à la Cour as Office Manager. Laurence will manage the day-to-day operations of the law firm and will be in charge of finance and human resources. Before joining MOLITOR, she was a group controller at Schreder S.A. in Brussels for two years and she spent five years with PwC Luxembourg as senior auditor and project coordinator.

Your contact(s)

Virginie LIEBERMANN

Counsel

Avocat à la Cour, Member of Luxembourg Bar, 2008

virginie.liebermann@molitorlegal.lu