

MOLITOR further strengthens its practice with the arrival of Lena Albrecht to its German Desk

Posted on Friday 24th of May 2019 in Corporate & M&A German Desk

Lena Albrecht, a German National aged 36, joins MOLITOR as Associate and she will contribute to strengthening the firm's German Desk. She is a qualified German Lawyer (Rechtsanwältin) admitted to the Berlin Bar and the Luxembourg Bar (list IV).

From 2012 until she joined MOLITOR, Lena worked in a French-German boutique law firm in Berlin, where she gained extensive experience in advising clients in both corporate and commercial law.

With her specialisation in cross-border projects and her complete understanding of the German culture, Lena will provide added depth to our German Desk. She attended a dual degree programme at the Universities of Potsdam and Paris, where she obtained both the First Legal State exam and a Master in European and International Law. In 2011, Lena passed the Second Legal State exam, over the course of which she spent a compulsory internship in a Paris-based law firm specialising in commercial law.
