

Sarah LAMM

Associate Avocat à la Cour, Member of the Luxembourg Bar, 2015
Corporate & M&A, Litigation & Dispute Resolution

Bar Admission(s): Avocats à la Cour, Member of the Luxembourg Bar, 2015

Speaks: Speaks English and French

Associations: Sarah is a member of the Conférence du Jeune Barreau de Luxembourg

EDUCATION

2015 Ministry of Justice Luxembourg (Complementary course in Luxembourg law)

2014 University of Clermont-Ferrand, France (Master degree in Banking and Business Law)

2012 University of Lorraine, Metz, France (Bachelor degree in Private Law)

TRANSACTIONS

CORPORATE MERGER WITHIN THE BANKING SECTOR

We assisted a Luxembourg bank in the preparation and execution of a merger with a Luxembourg investment firm.

GENERAL ADVICE

After being appointed a lead advisor to this client in relation to their SIF at which time our legal assistance included advice in relation to any changes concerning the investment fund (prospectus, articles of association), contact with the supervisory authorities if requested by client, MOLITOR were then requested to set up a new sub-fund and implement changes in an existing fund. MOLITOR now provide ongoing general advice to the client.

KOREAN INVESTMENT

A major Korean law firm contacted MOLITOR to assist a Korean company specialised in app-based hotel bookings business, in a strategic investment into a budget network start-up. MOLITOR acted as Luxembourg counsel for the legal due diligence, and the negotiation of investment documents which were all governed by Luxembourg law, and as coordinator of legal due diligence in 4 South East Asian jurisdictions.
